Gold Medal Plates supports Canada's athletes through the ultimate celebration of Canadian excellence.

Staged in eleven cities across Canada in 2017, Gold Medal Plates supports Canadian Olympic athletes by celebrating excellence in five pillars: sport, food/wine/craft beer, entertainment, corporations and travel. In each city, 8 to 10 premier chefs will compete to be on the podium and be crowned a gold, silver or bronze medal winner. Awards are also given to podium deserving Canadian wines and new this year: Gold Medal Pints – the chance to taste the best in Canadian craft beer. Canadian music icons like Jim Cuddy, Ed Robertson, Alan Doyle, Tom Cochrane, Johnny Reid, Barney Bentall and many more lend their talent to show Canadian athletes how proud we are of their journey and their successes on the world stage.

Gold Medal Plates was founded by Stephen Leckie and Karen Blair. Since its inception, this project has received tremendous support and accolades all across Canada, and has generated over $12 million for Canada's Olympic athletes.
